9. Competition Formula

The tournament consists three days and includes feature 16 featured teams The 16 teams are divided into four pools of four teams each and will play a round-robin tournament to determine the ranking from first to four.

The top teams in all pools will progress to the semifinals and finals. The second, third and fourth placed teams from the pool stage will enter a similar playoff format playing for classification from fifth to sixteenth.

Phase 1: pools

The 16 teams are divided into four pools of four teams each and will play a round-robin tournament to determine the ranking from first to four.

The top four teams from pools A1, B1, C1, D1 will ranked according to their total point from 1-4. Teams ranked 1 and 2 will qualifies directly to the semifinals and teams ranked 3 and 4 will play elimination game against the winners that ranked 2 in the pools.

Pool ranking criteria

In order to establish the ranking of teams, the following criteria shall be implemented

i. Number of victories

The teams will be classified in descending order by the number of matches won.

ii. Ranking Points

In case of equality in the number of matches won the ranking points will be considered.

Results	Winners	Losers
2-0	pts 2	pts 1
2-1	pts 2	pts 1
technical	pts 2	pts 0

iii. Set ratio

In the case of equality in the number of matches won by two or several teams, they will be classified in descending order by the quotient resulting from the division of the number of all sets won by the number of all sets lost.

iv. Points ratio

If the tie persists as per the set ratio, the teams will be classified in descending order by the result of dividing all points scored by the total of points lost during all sets

v. Still tied ?

Update 11/5/2016

If the tie continues as per the point ratio between two teams, the priority will be given to the team which won the last match between them. When the tie in points ratio is between three or more teams, a new classification of these teams in the terms of points 1, 2 and 3 will be made taking into consideration only the matches in which they were opposed to each other

Phase 2: loser's bracket

Teams ranked 2 from the pools A2, B2, C2, D2 will play one game with only one set until 18 point. The winners of these games will play qualification game to the semifinal against ranked 3 and 4.

Phase 3: finals

Team ranked 1 and 2 will play in the semifinal against the winners of the qualification games. The winners of the semifinal will play in the final for the first and second place of the tournament. The loser will play for the third place. Teams from the pools stage will be ranked from fifth to sixteenth and play a single match game with the team that ranked subsequently (5-6 ,7-8, etc...) to determine the final ranking
