1. The court is a rectangular measuring 9X18 meters
2. The play space is the zone above the playing area which is free of any obstacle. The play space has to have clearance of at least 7 meter above the play area surface
3. Boundary lines: Two side lines and two end lines define the court. The side lines and the end lines are all included within the dimensions of the court.
4. Center line: The axis of the center line divides the court into two equal halves each measuring 9X9 meters. This line extends under the net from side line to side line.
5. Attack line: On each court, an attack line whose back end is drawn at 3 meters from the axis of the center line, marks the front court zone.
6. The net is hung vertically over the center line and it is stretched, so that its top is at a height of 2.24 meters
7. The net is 1.0 meters wide and 9.5 to 10 meters long (including 25-50 cm on each side of the side bands) and it is made of a black square mesh measuring 10X10 cm.
8. Two white bands are attached vertically to the net and are positioned above each of the side lines.
9. An antenna is a flexible rod, 1.8 meters long and 10 mm in diameter, made of fiberglass or a similar material. Each antenna is fastened on the outer edge of each side band.
10. The posts that support the net are placed at 0.5-1 meters beyond each side line. Their height is 2.55 meters and it is recommended that they be adjustable.
11. The posts are round and smooth and are fixed to the floor without wires. Any dangerous or obstructive devices must be avoided.
